

OWAMMO's Gathering Rules

Thank you for showing interest in our event. We ask that you read and follow the following rules.

1. All participants must read the OWAMMO's Gathering Rules.
2. All participants eighteen (18) years of age or older must read, sign, and adhere to OWAMMO's General Release and Liability Waiver. The parents or guardians will be held responsible for the conduct of their children and the understanding of the OWAMMO's Gathering Rules.
3. Blank name tags will be distributed, please fill out name tags for you and each member of your family that will be in attendance of our event and have them wear them at all times while they are at the event. Thank you.
4. All participants are expected to provide their own eye and ear protection to be used when needed.
5. All participants in any event, demonstration, lecture or other, are expected to have and demonstrate appropriate safety techniques.
6. For those wishing to sell machinery or items at the event site in Hollister YMCA, we are required to give you a copy of Missouri tax form #2360 for you to fill out as described and returned to the State of Mo. in the envelope provided within 10 days after the close of the event on 4/30/2011.
7. All items are swapped or sold 'as is' and the buyer assumes responsibility for the item. No general warranties or warranties for a particular purpose are made, and none should be assumed, as to items swapped or sold.
8. All persons attending the event, shall be aware that for any purchased, traded, swapped, or otherwise acquired items, the buyer or final owner of any item shall be aware of its operating hazard potentials, and that used or older equipment might not have, or be required to have, certain safety devices as required by law for "new" equipment.
9. Participants are responsible for their own rigging, safety, and protective measures when moving equipment. A 1500# capacity and a 2000# capacity shop crane will be available for participants use. All parties shall be responsible for protecting and restoring any destroyed, damaged, or otherwise altered conditions.
10. Park hours at the Hollister YMCA are from 7:30 am to 6:00 pm. Our event will close at 5:30 pm each day and we are allowing 30 minutes for clean-up each afternoon.
11. No security officer will be on duty and the facility is not secure. Individuals are responsible for securing their own property.

We hope you and your Family enjoy this event and will plan to join us for future OWAMMO's Gatherings!